Fake Ashtar Sherans

~ Sharon Stewart

There are many people who claim to be channeling Ashtar Sheran. There is an actual person, an ascended master with physicality in the 5th dimension, who is commanding the Ashtar Command division of the Galactic Federation of Light. He does exist.

However, he is the MOST replicated entity by the dark forces, who claim to be Ashtar and who feed unsuspecting lightworkers disinformation telepathically. The other most replicated beings are "The Pleadians" who always seem to be a nameless group, who also are being faked by the dark side.

You have to beware of this and understand that there are only a few English speakers who channel Ashtar. They are me, Mike McConnell, Elizabeth Trutwin, that I know of. There may be more.

Otherwise you may well be hearing from a dark entity feeding you or someone else disinformation. Also, Ashtar Sheran has no family here on earth. Anyone claiming to be him, or his sister or his mother or whatever, is not telling the truth.

Channeling someone is a job that has to be taken seriously. It is a responsible position, not given to everybody. The Light doesn't want their messages being changed at all by their channelers so they have chosen people to come here to channel for them who are of integrity. The dark, on the other hand, pick people they can either fool or can manipulate into doing their dirtywork for them.

How to tell the difference between a real and a fake Ashtar? The quality of the message for starters. Is the message loving? Does it use any manipulations, put-downs, how do you feel listening to it? Do you feel informed, happier or do you feel down from when you started to listen to it? How do you feel when you talk to someone who is mean to you or trying to trick you? It's no different from dealing with people on earth. The discernment you use dealing with earthlings is the same discernment you need to use to discern a fake Ashtar or not. Because where do you think we learned to manipulate, control and put others down? From the beings who are doing these channelings, that's where!

The reason the dark is allowed to carry on doing this is because the Lightworkers have to learn to be discerning so that they, in turn, can teach the people of earth. Learning to be discerning makes you more powerful and it's part of your learning on earth.
